

Timoxena Sloan

Miss Timoxena Sloan, 77, of 26 Sloan Street, Franklin, died Saturday, December 30, in Angel Community Hospital after a long illness.

She was a retired registered nurse and, at one time was director of nursing education at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami, Fla. She had served as chairman of the Florida State Board of Nursing and had been director of nursing education at Grady Memorial Hospital in Atlanta, Ga.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Carolyn Easton, of Lenoir City, Tenn., and Miss Eleanor Sloan, of Franklin, with whom she had made her home for the past 21 years; and two brothers, W. N. Sloan, of Franklin, and Carter Sloan, of San Saba, Texas.

Services were held Monday, January 1, at First United Methodist Church, Franklin, of which she was a member, and burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery. The Rev. Robin Hurley, pastor, and the Rev. C. E. Murray officiated. Pallbearers were Harry Thomas, Norman Blaine, W. W. Sloan, Richard Jones, Phil McCollum and John Shepherd.

Arrangements were under the direction of Bryant Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the United Methodist Church Building Fund or to the Jesse and Georgia Sloan Scholarship Fund at Western Carolina University. Checks may be mailed to Miss Eleanor Sloan, 26 Sloan Street, Franklin, N.C.